10. Report From Recreation Director – recreation netted $40000 from the camps this year in comparison to 16000 from the prior year. The increase came from better enrollment and a decrease in some costs including staffing. Pre school camp expanded and was very successful. The summer concert series was very successful. Teen scene was sold out with waiting lists. All of the trips went very well. Matt and Anthony were fired and 1 new person was hired for recreation. Some improvements are being considered at Columbia. Some small tree removal, addition of stones and picnic tables are some of the considerations. They are waiting for estimates.
